The Rev. W. W. Kirkby, rector of Christ Church, has just received a letter from the Rev. William Carpenter Bompas, Bishop of the mission stations Carpenter Bompas, Bishop of the mission stations at Fort Yukon, Circle City, Dawson City, Selkirk and Klondike. There are eight of these missions of the Episcopal Church, and some of them were established by Archdeacon Kirkby thirty-five years ago. The Bishop's letter is dated July 30, 187, and he speaks of two great creeks of gold and much excitement. "I suppose," he writes, "that only a few hundred people will be made rich, and that these will be compelled to undergo great privation, as the food supply in Dawson City is reported insufficient to meet the demands of the newcomers. The Bishop speaks of claims valued at $30,000 to $1,000,000, and says that it is no uncommon thing to see a man after six months' toil with a bag of nuggets which he can scarcely carry. Archdeacon Kirkby has delivered a number of lectures on his experiences, in aid of charity, and will speak to-morrow night in Grace Church, in Plainfield, N. J. He has also accepte, incitations to lecture in churches in New-York City and in Connecticut.
